

Eva María Poptcheva

Eva Maria is member of the European Parliament and the co-rapporteur of the regulation establishing the EU's Anti-Money Laundering Authority (AMLA) on behalf of the Renew Europe Group in the ECON committee. She is also an official of the European Parliament on leave of absence, holding positions as member of the cabinet of the Secretary General, member of the inter-institutional Secretariat of the Conference on the Future of Europe and Head of the Legislative Affairs Unit of the European Parliament. Before joining the European Parliament, she had experience in law firms in Spain and Germany.

Eva Maria Poptcheva holds a law degree from the University of Freiburg (Germany) and a PhD in European constitutional law from the Autonomous University of Barcelona, where she also taught constitutional and EU law.